Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Remote Sales Representative position at Gigdeveloper Ltd. With a strong background in sales and a passion for innovative tech solutions, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your global team.

Over the past few years, I've helped startups and tech companies grow through sharp outreach, meaningful conversations, and structured follow-ups. My strengths lie in generating leads, booking qualified meetings, and driving sales with a calm, clear, and human approach. I've also been a part of building remote teams, setting up CRMs, and optimizing the full sales pipeline—from cold to closed.

What drew me to Gigdeveloper is your global mindset and the fact that you're solving a real problem: bridging the gap between great developers and clients who need them, fast. That's a mission I'd love to be part of.

I know how to move fast, learn even faster, and communicate value in a way that cuts through the noise. I bring energy, structure, and a deep respect for customer experience in everything I do.

I'd love to tell you more about how I can contribute to Gigdeveloper's growth. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards,
Theo Ruden

P.S. On top of sales, I'm also a strong visual designer and marketer—meaning I know how to make things look and sell better. Handy in a startup, right?

THANKS FOR READING!

Looking forward to hearing from you :)
