Profile

A dynamic professional with a degree in Aviation Management and a proven ability to connect with people through strong communication and persuasive skills. With experience in logistics and sales at Expeditors, I excelled in building lasting client relationships, presenting tailored solutions, and driving results in competitive environments.

Currently on a solo travel journey, I continue to refine my adaptability, cultural awareness, and problem-solving skills. A skilled guitarist and outdoor enthusiast, I bring creativity, discipline, and a proactive mindset to every opportunity.
